P.C.

1. This is an intervention application by the person against whom C.R. has been registered. The petitioner has approached to this Court for transfer of investigation. In this matter, the accused in the C.R. has filed application making statement that he wants to assist the court for pointing out certain facts. In fact, the matter is under investigation and the complainant desires to get the investigation transferred. It is none of the business of the accused person to interfere in the investigation. The accused is entitled for documents which are addressed to the court, only when the chargesheet is filed and charges are framed against him and therefore the intervention application is hereby rejected.
